

SEED INSTITUTE PROGRAM

Following is some information of the SEED Institute Program:

A. Application

1. Candidate Criteria: complete at least 12th grade; letter of recommendation; pass entrance exam; open to people of both sexes from throughout the country.
2. Program lasts 3 years with a lot of practice and covers agriculture, animal husbandry, vet techniques, and Bible
3. Application distribution starting beginning of June until mid September and it is an open process
4. Cost: the tuition is kept at US$ 15 per month to favor access by most

B. Graduate Profile

1. Graduates from the program are practical are trained to
 - a) pull community to work together
 - b) promote soil conservation and reforestation
 - c) promote vegetable and crop production
 - d) promote animal husbandry and offer basic care to animals in the community
 - e) assist in the spreading of the Gospel

C. Potential Employers

Here are some of the groups where grads are hired:

- Heifer
- FAO
- World Concern
- Caritas (CRS)
- Floresta
- AVSI (Italian group)
- AUC (American University of the Caribbean)
- World Vision
- FAES (Economic + Social Assistance Fund)